

Lincoln Institute Fellowship for Ethics and Equity in Public Administration

A DYNAMIC NEW FELLOWSHIP.
A DYNAMIC NEW MPA PROGRAM.

The Lincoln Institute of Land Policy has committed $100,000 to fund the newly established Lincoln Institute Fellowship for Ethics and Equity in Public Administration. Each fellowship of up to $5,000 will support select new students earning a Master in Public Administration (MPA) at Claremont Lincoln University (CLU), a non-profit online graduate university that focuses on a socially conscious education.

$100,000 IN FELLOWSHIPS
FOR FUTURE LEADERSHIP.

APPLICATION MATERIALS

1. CV/resume that includes your email and mobile phone.
2. A 2-3 page narrative that describes your professional goals, your commitment to pursuing an MPA, and your vision for the types of leadership needed today.
_____ OR _____
A short video that describes your professional goals, your commitment to pursuing an MPA, and your vision for the types of leadership needed today.
3. In your narrative or video please list: 1) your name; 2) your professional title and place of employment if applicable; 3) where you completed your baccalaureate degree and year graduated; 4) your contact information, and 5) who referred you or how you heard about this fellowship.

SUBMISSION DEADLINES, August 25, 2024 | 11:59PM

for classes starting September 2, 2024

UPLOAD YOUR APPLICATION HERE

For more information, please contact Chris
Mayweather, admission@claremontlincoln.edu

Please see next page for fellowship terms.

Lincoln Institute Fellowship for Ethics and Equity in Public Administration

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE FELLOWSHIP.

A key goal of the fellowship program is to empower a diverse group of aspiring leaders with the critical skills and knowledge needed to enact ethical, equitable and inclusive policies and practices. Fellowships are up to $5K and those receiving fellowships will be known as Lincoln Institute Fellows for Ethics and Equity.

FELLOWSHIP TERMS

- Fellows must have completed a baccalaureate degree from a recognized US institution or ministry of education.
- Fellowship funds will be disbursed in installments each term not to exceed 50% of the student's term tuition.
- Fellowship funds have no cash value and are only applied toward tuition charges.
- Fellows must remain in good academic and financial standing or fellowship will be forfeited.
- A fellowship award does not guarantee admission to Claremont Lincoln University. If selected, fellows will be guided through CLU's admissions process for the MPA, which requires an online application, and a copy of your unofficial undergraduate transcript. We do not require a GRE or GMAT for acceptance. CLU's acceptance decisions are typically provided within 24 hours once an application has been submitted.

APPLICATION REVIEW

Candidates will be independently reviewed by five panelists, including
2 reviewers from the Lincoln Institute,
2 reviewers from CLU's MPA Inaugural Advisory Council, and
1 reviewer from CLU MPA department.