After two terms on probation, a student who fails to make Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) by maintaining a 3.0 cumulative GPA, a 67% completion rate, and a 150% maximum degree completion timeframe will no longer be eligible to receive federal financial aid. Students may appeal to continue on a cash pay basis. Appeals are not guaranteed and are made at the discretion of the University. Students may apply for federal financial aid upon return to good academic standing.

Student Name: _____ Program Select One

- I acknowledge that I have been suspended from receiving federal financial aid as I have not met one or more of the terms required for Satisfactory Academic Progress.
- I would like to continue my enrollment and understand that if my appeal to do so is approved I must pay for my classes using funding sources other than federal financial aid during my suspension.
- I understand that I will not be eligible to receive federal financial aid until I have met the minimum standards required by the SAP policy and returned to good academic standing.
