

PREPARE TO LEAD

Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership Online Degree Completion Program

The Bachelor of Arts Organizational Leadership (BOL) is a student-centered, "100% online-by-design" degree completion program with a strong focus on the competencies future leaders need to be self-sufficient thinkers and lifelong learners. Students can develop their leadership style by practicing the essential skills needed to be open-minded, solve problems creatively, and lead with integrity. Regardless of your field of focus, this program offers five concentration choices and a curriculum designed to allow you to lead organizations in a globally competitive environment.

BEGIN CLASSES IN JANUARY 2023 TO EARN
A SCHOLARSHIP OF UP TO $1,650!

Flexible and Accessible

100% Online

Committed to engaged, virtual learning that is accessible to students across the globe, our online-by-design curriculum was made to meet the needs of busy adult learners.

Accelerated Program

The baccalaureate completion program can be completed in under 24 months, dependent on your unique variables of transferable credits and full-time status.

Affordably Priced

Our baccalaureate completion program is also affordably priced at $250 per credit hour.

Master's Track

You can accelerate the completion of a master's degree by earning nine credits toward it while completing your BA. This allows you to complete your master's in a shorter time period while reducing tuition costs.

THE CLAREMONT CORE®

Grounded in ethical leadership, CLU's mission is delivered through the power and the potential of four critical strategic skills that are embedded into every CLU program.

- Affordable
- Accessible
- Life-Changing
- World-Changing

For more information:

admission@claremontlincoln.edu | claremontlincoln.edu | (909) 667-4400

PROGRAM INFO

Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership

Online Degree Completion Program

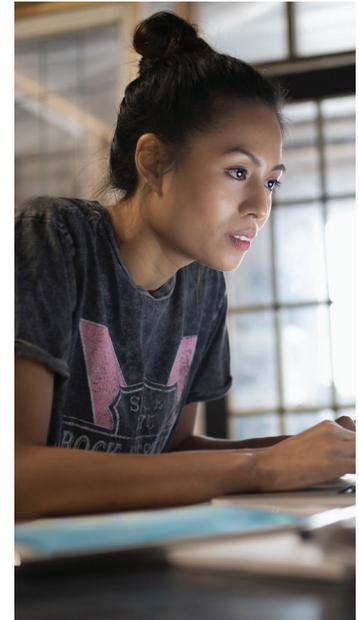

Students in the Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership online degree completion program will learn to develop their leadership style by effectively practicing a variety of skills essential in organizational settings that will equip them to be open-minded, solve problems creatively, and lead with integrity.

Discover how to effect positive change as you learn to:

- Develop ethical and innovative leadership skills
- Become an analytical thinker able to evaluate organizational challenges and achieve manageable solutions
- Build collaborative relationships that foster a culture of support, inclusion, and community
- Design strategies that consider problems, opportunities, continuous learning, and research-based decision-making to achieve critical goals

With five concentrations to fit your future, prepare to become a self-sufficient thinker ready to lead in a globally competitive environment:

- Professional Studies
- Human Resources Management
- Management
- Corporate Social Responsibility (Coming Soon)
- Healthcare Administration (Coming Soon)

Enter Ready to Learn, Exit Ready to Lead

Finish That Degree

This program is designed for adult learners, working adults, or students who have not yet finished their bachelor's degree. Students must have an associate's degree (AA or AS) or at least 60 approved credits that meet the General Education requirements to qualify for admission. The average cost for a CLU student is between $7,500 - $15,000 for the entire program based on the number of transfer credits applied.

Your Experience Counts with Us

You could be closer to your degree than you realize. CLU works with you in a seamless process to assess past certificates, transfer credits, and even work experience that may apply to your program. Every situation is totally unique, we take each on a case-by-case basis.

The Best Leaders Never Stop Learning

If you're a member of the military or if you currently have a position of leadership, this is truly the place and the program for you. Your experience is respected and valued and your current leadership skills will be augmented to provide value to forward-thinking organizations.

Start Your Journey Today

The world is waiting for you. Don't wait for your degree. Visit claremontlincoln.edu/finish-your-ba to connect with knowledgeable staff ready to answer all of your questions.